MATHEWSON GATES

GEM 12/12

RAY:

Every first-year walks in through these gates. Every senior walks out.

They're named for Christy Mathewson, Big Six, a Bucknell student before he became one of baseball's greatest pitchers.

His signature pitch was the fadeaway. You're not fading anywhere. Not today.

You found all twelve: the ghost, the creek, the cells, the tots, every one.

Walk through one more time. I'll be right here, cheering. I always am.
